Internal Audit

LALC can offer an Internal Audit service for its councils. This will consist of a mid-year audit to go through your governance in depth, and a light-touch audit at year-end enabling you to confidently sign off the AGAR. When you request an audit, we'll contact you to discuss what you need, agree the terms of service with you and then put you in touch with your internal auditor.

All our internal auditors are experienced clerks who will follow the guidance and process as per the Practitioners' Guide (Section 4—Best practice guidance for internal audit).

Course	Description	Date(s)
Communicating with your community part 1: creating a communications strategy	Every local council should have a communications strategy, setting out its communications priorities, aims and goals. In this session, we will consider how your council could create an effective communication strategy, that is sustainable and supports your council. A strategy that considers your council's human and financial resources.	10th November, 9:30 2nd February, 10:00
Communicating with your community part 2: engaging with your community	This session will focus on putting your council's communication plan into action: how your council could connect with the community it represents. Considering the ways your council can communicate effectively and build conversations. Providing tools and techniques to start engaging and getting messages across.	5th January, 10:00 2nd March, 10:00
How councils can recruit a more diverse pool of local councillors	How can you find and encourage a more diverse pool of people to stand or be co-opted as town or parish councillors? It is increasingly hard to find people who are willing to put their names forward either at election time or to be co-opted. Explore effective ways councils and councillors can engage people, building up awareness and interest in the work of the council, in order to better promote and demystify the role of a councillor.	13th January, 9:30 5th March, 13:00
How councils can more effectively engage with young people in their communities	Councils often find it challenging to connect with young people. In this session, we will define "young people" and consider the issues important to them. Exploring effective ways to engage online and offline, we will also offer insights on forming partnerships with local youth organisations.	5th November, 11:00 5th February, 9:30
Dealing with difficult people and conversations in our local councils	Handling professional relationships within local councils is critical, but it can be tough dealing with challenging people and situations. This session discusses practical techniques for managing difficult conversations and situations.	6th November, 10:00 20th January, 10:00 4th February, 10:00
Boosting Your Council's Identity: How to Promote Your Council Effectively	Exploring what brand identity means for parish and town councils, why it matters, and how to create a clear and consistent identity that reflects your council's purpose and values. Get the most from local and regional media	Local newspapers, magazines, regional TV, and radio offer local councils a way to communicate with residents. However, dealing with journalists and the media can be intimidating. In this session we will consider how to establish positive relationships with journalists. How to write impactful press releases. Ensure that your council gets regular and positive coverage in your local media.	25th November, 10:00 24th February, 9:30
Crisis communications for local councils	A crisis could strike at any point. Anything from flooding to a meeting going viral. There are many ways in which you could find yourself in the eye of the media storm. This session takes participants through the detail of preparing for any crisis. Passing on expert tips and guidance on being prepared. On the effective steps your council could take should the worst happen.	22nd January, 9:30
Social media part 1: Getting started with social media for local councils	Social media is a great tool for councils to use to improve their communication. In this session you will learn the basics and how to get started right. We will focus on creating a social media strategy and the basics of Facebook. Our goal is to share with you time-saving tools and techniques. Hopefully, this will help you and your council to be more confident using social media.	14th November, 9:30 11th February, 10:00
Social media part 2: Advanced social media strategies and tactics for local councils	Councils often use different social media platforms to connect with the community. This session explores a wide range of social media platforms. There will be a focus on how to get the most from key social media platforms. Exploring the ways of ensuring that social media supports your council to achieve its goals and aims. We will also introduce you to social media advertising.	18th November, 9:30 25th February, 10:00
Councillors training: Social media skills for parish and town councillors	It has never been more important for councillors to understand social media. In the session we will go through the confusing world of social media communications. It is designed for both social media users and those new to it. During the session you will learn where to focus your time and effort. We will point out the pitfalls. Consider difficult situations. Most importantly we will help you as a councillor to get the most from social media.	20th November, 18:30 2nd February, 18:30

Dispute Resolution Programme		Personnel Advice & Solutions Ltd (Chris Moses)
Personnel Advice & Solutions Ltd has produced a Dispute Resolution Programme aimed at councils struggling with employment issues. The purpose of the programme is to help councillors understand their role as employers, the employment laws that affect how they carry out that role, and practical steps to address employment disputes. The programme consists of three separate 30 minute Zoom recordings that can be sent to the council, and then distributed to all councillors for them to watch in their own time. For further details contact p.d.solutions@zen.co.uk
Module	Description	Fee
1—Awareness	Helps councillors and employees understand their role as employers and managers and understand what they can and cannot do. It explains the unique working environment that makes town and parish Councils very different from other employers, and how that environment is prone to disputes.	£150 plus VAT
2—Legal issues	Explains what a Council's legal obligations are, the need to comply with statutory guidelines, and the current legal framework that determines how disputes can be addressed in town and parish councils. It addresses: The causes of conflict and disputes; What legal action can be taken against councils and councillors who mismanage employee disputes; Understanding the ACAS Guidelines and requirements of the Localism Act 2011 for resolving employee disputes and Code of Conduct complaints.	£150 plus VAT
3—Practical issues	Helps Councils to work within the spirit of the ACAS Guidelines to resolve disputes between councillors and employees, as well as fully comply with all of their legal obligations. It discusses various informal options to resolve the problem. Plus if the matter has to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer, it helps Councils to effectively support employees through that process. Including: The importance of employment procedures that are fair and transparent, right for small organisations and understood by all parties, as required by the ACAS Guidelines; Understanding the difference between a Grievance and a Code of Conduct complaint; Steps to support an employee whose health is affected by a dispute; Supporting an employee to make a balanced, evidenced and professional complaint to the Monitoring Officer, if necessary and appropriate.	£150 plus VAT
Ad-hoc Zoom session	We can also conduct a Zoom meeting (30 – 60 minutes), with Councils to discuss the points covered by these modules.	£250 plus VAT

Course	Description
COSHH Essentials	Every year, thousands of workers suffer from illnesses caused by hazardous substances in the workplace. By the end of this course, learners should be able to: • Explain what COSHH is and why it's important in the workplace • Identify and interpret the hazard symbols used in COSHH • Recognise hazardous substances you might encounter at work and understand their risks to your health • Use control measures and safe handling to minimise your exposure to hazardous substances
Infection Control Essentials	This course covers the fundamentals of how to slow the spread of those harmful microbes which can make us unwell. T he online learning is aimed at anyone who might come into contact with infections during their work. Reducing the spread of everyday illnesses is desirable for everyone. We all want fewer periods of illness and less risk of passing infection on to others!
Unconscious Bias Essentials	Have you ever jumped to the wrong conclusion or misjudged someone you just met? We all do it, with just about everyone we come across. We make snap judgements about people based on the very little information we know about them. And mostly, we do it without even knowing. Our unconscious biases can have a big influence on how we feel about people and affect the decisions we make every day. Because these biases are often rooted in inaccurate or incomplete information, they can lead to unfair assumptions and poor decision-making, without us realising. This course aims to increase your awareness of unconscious bias and give practical tips on how you can reduce the effect it has on your decisions, attitudes and behaviour.

Course	Description
Standards in public life 	This module is primarily designed to support those elected or co-opted and/or working in local councils, to understand the principles of conduct expected of all councillors. Information is based upon national model code of conduct produced by The Local Government Association but recognises that councillors must abide by your own council's code of conduct, and so also provides some generic support for those wishing to better understand the behaviours expected of all councillors.
Respectful and positive social media for councils and councillors 	This introductory module from Breakthrough Communications will consider the opportunities and risks associated with social media from a civility and respect perspective. It will explore a range of proactive and pre-emptive strategies councils and councillors can put in place to set themselves up for success. It will explore what to do if things go wrong and how to manage a range of scenarios from trolling to harassment and what practical steps you can take,
Leadership in challenging situations for councils and councillors 	This introductory module from Breakthrough Communications will consider different leadership styles in the context of your role at the council, exploring which styles we personally 'default' to and which styles can work effectively for different situations. It will also discover how to build, support and get the most from an effective and motivated team.
An introduction to emotional Intelligence and personal resilience 	This introductory module from Breakthrough Communications will develop a better understanding of where our behaviour comes from and will consider what emotional intelligence and resilience means for us in the context of our roles within the council. There will be opportunities to explore role-focussed scenarios and consider how we might respond to them. It will also explore strategies to deal with and manage a range of situations.

After each training session you will be sent an email asking you to complete a short feedback form (CLICK ON THE FEEDBACK LINK). Please take the time to complete this. Without your feedback, we cannot assess the effectiveness of the training we provide.

If you're looking for training not currently on our schedule, please let us know.

The LALC Annual Training Scheme (ATS): 1st April 2025—31st March 2026

CORE training is included in the ATS. This covers essential training that is common to all councils. Light refreshments e.g. tea/coffee are provided. Member councils will be invoiced £13.00 plus VAT per delegate to cover lunch for full day (in-person) events.

Councils who are not members of the ATS can still attend but additional charges apply (as per non-core training below).

NON-CORE training is not included in the ATS and an additional charge of £35 plus VAT per delegate for any morning/afternoon/evening session (including refreshments) will apply. There will be a charge of £78 plus VAT per delegate for an all-day in person event (including lunch and refreshments). An all-day remote session will be charged at £65 plus VAT.

Non-core charges apply to ATS and non-ATS members.

Please note that ATS charges are in addition to the LALC annual membership fees.

Bookings

Bookings should be made by the Clerk via the online portal, unless otherwise specified. When booking via the portal, please ensure that delegate email addresses are correct, otherwise they will not receive joining instructions. For those courses specifying 'contact LALC', email enquiries@lalc.co.uk.

*Please notify us if a delegate has specific dietary, learning or access requirements when booking.

Cancellations

- For part day courses – please ensure we receive cancellations at least 48 hours in advance
- For full day events – please ensure we receive cancellations at least 5 working days in advance, as we need to pre-order and pay for lunches

Due to persistent non-attendance at booked events, it is unfortunate that LALC have had to amend the way we impose our cancellation fees. All members are charged 50% of the training cost when insufficient notice is received (as above) for non-attendance at training events. No shows will be charged at 100% of the course fee. All charges are regardless of whether the council is a member of the ATS or not.
