

LALC Annual Training Scheme (ATS): 1st April 2026 - 31st March 2027

ATS fees are charged based on the council's electorate figure and it is up to the individual council to decide whether it wants to join the ATS or not.

Please note that ATS charges are in addition to the LALC annual membership fees.

CORE training is included in the ATS. This covers essential training that is common to all councils. ATS member councils will be invoiced £15 plus VAT per delegate to cover lunch and refreshments for full day, in person events.

Councils who are not ATS members can still attend, but additional charges will apply (as stated below).

NON CORE training is not included in the ATS and additional charges will apply (as stated below). Non Core charges will apply to both ATS and non ATS members.

Morning, afternoon or evening session	£40 plus VAT per delegate (including refreshments, for in person events)
All day, remote event	£70 plus VAT per delegate
All day, in person event	£85 plus VAT per delegate (including lunch and refreshments)

Booking places

Bookings can be made by the Clerk or the Chair via the LALC portal, unless otherwise specified. If you have set your councillors up on the portal, you can select their details from a drop-down list when booking a place on one of the courses. If you do not have your councillors set up, the drop-down list will be blank and you will have to type their details in manually.

Please ensure that the attendee's email is correct, otherwise they will not receive the joining instructions and automated email reminders.

Please notify us if the attendee has specific dietary, learning or access requirements when booking.

Cancellations

48 hours' cancellation notice is required for part day courses and at least 5 working days' cancellation notice is required for full day in person events, as we need to pre-order and pay for lunches.

When insufficient notice has been given, 50% of the non-ATS member training cost will be applied. No shows will be charged the full non-ATS member cost. All charges are regardless of whether the council is a member of the ATS or not.

AI with Cloudy IT

Delivered by:

Building on our popular AI Days in Wales and across England, this is a practical, hands-on day. We will look at how artificial intelligence is already changing the way councils work, what Microsoft 365 and Copilot can do for a clerk's day-to-day, and how to start thinking about AI governance at council level.

The day runs two tracks — one for clerks and officers, one for councillors — so everyone leaves with something relevant to their role.

Lunch is included.

The new National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF): What local councils need to know

Delivered by:

In August 2026, the Government published a new version of the NPPF – the key national planning document.

The new framework is the most substantial rewrite of planning rules in at least a decade. It aims to increase certainty and consistency, standardise national policies and reduce unnecessary duplication and unjustified local variation in the planning system.

It also includes reforms intended to boost housing supply, unlock economic growth and support sustainable development.

The webinar will explain the main changes, focusing on those with the greatest implications for the sector.

It is designed to help councillors and clerks understand the changes and their practical impact.

Come along to this year's Clerk's Networking event - an opportunity to network with other clerks. The day incorporates the SLCC AGM.

Schedule for the day:

SLCC Members - registration at 9:30, with the SLCC Lincolnshire branch AGM at 9:45.

Non SLCC Members - registration at 9:45 and a chance to network before the morning session starts.

10:15 Becky Walsh, from Council Culture presents Spun-out: A Nervous System with Trust Issues - Laugh, Learn and find the edges of your comfort zone (Window of Tolerance).

An interactive workshop inspired by Becky Walsh's comedy show about anxiety, trauma and the nervous system that thinks everything is a threat. It brings sharp humour, uncomfortable truths and recognisable moments from everyday working life. This is not therapy. It is a practical, human session about why the body can react as though every difficult email, meeting or conversation is a threat.

The session will cover:

- Fight, flight, freeze and fawn. How these responses can show up in council life.
- Why replaying a conversation, scanning a room or feeling exhausted after "doing nothing" can make sense.
- Simple ways to notice a stress response before it takes over the rest of the day.
- Learn how your body can detect the difference between vodka and water without sniffing or drinking it.
- Interactive reflection, laughter and practical regulation tools delegates can use at work.
- A chance to feel seen, better understand their own patterns and leave slightly less on edge.

There will be a festive buffet lunch at 13:00.

Our afternoon session commences at 14:00 and features Lance Allen, User Acceptance & Training Project Manager to the Smaller Authorities Audit Appointments \(SAAA\) and Claire Reed, NALC Proper Practices Project Manager.

Lance will be demonstrating the new Digital AGAR which will be available for submission of the 2026-27 AGAR and you will find out about accessing the new system in advance of your 2026-27 submission and what you will need to do in 2027 to submit your council's AGAR using the new system. There will be a cashback incentive for those councils submitting online in 2027 which is equivalent to your 2027 External Audit fee.

Claire will tell us all about changes to Proper Practices.

Infection Control Essentials	This course covers the fundamentals of how to slow the spread of those harmful microbes which can make us unwell. The online learning is aimed at anyone who might come into contact with infections during their work. Reducing the spread of everyday illnesses is desirable for everyone. We all want fewer periods of illness and less risk of passing infection on to others!
Unconscious Bias Essentials	Have you ever jumped to the wrong conclusion or misjudged someone you just met? We all do it, with just about everyone we come across. We make snap judgements about people based on the very little information we know about them. And mostly, we do it without even knowing. Our unconscious biases can have a big influence on how we feel about people and affect the decisions we make every day. Because these biases are often rooted in inaccurate or incomplete information, they can lead to unfair assumptions and poor decision-making, without us realising. This course aims to increase your awareness of unconscious bias and give practical tips on how you can reduce the effect it has on your decisions, attitudes and behaviour.

Save the Date! LALC Conference 2027

Due to the elections taking place in May next year, we appreciate everyone will be very busy onboarding new councillors. LALC will also be busy over the summer providing Councillor Induction training.

We will therefore be holding next year's LALC Conference on Tuesday 28th September 2027. Once again the conference will be held at the Epic Centre, Lincolnshire Showground. We'd love to see you all there!

Please let us know if there are any specific topics or speakers/trade stands you would like to see.

Don't Forget To Provide Your Feedback After An Event

After each training session you will be sent an email asking you to complete a short feedback form (click on the feedback link). Please take the time to complete this. Without your feedback, we cannot assess the effectiveness of the training we provide.

If you're looking for training not currently on our schedule, please let us know.
